kindly invites you to the lecture given within the framework of the Science Month by

Dr. László Munteán

The Afterlife of the Ruins of the World Trade Center

Time: 20 November 2019, 12.00 p.m.

Venue: Studio 111 (Main building)

László Munteán is Assistant Professor of Cultural Studies and American Studies at Radboud University, Nijmegen. He gained his PhD at ELTE in 2011 with a dissertation entitled "Topographies of Trauma: Constellations of the Corporeal and the Architectural in Representations of 9/11". Drawing on diverse theoretical apparatuses, his publications have focused on the memorialization of 9/11 in literature and the visual arts, American cities and architecture, as well as the architectural history of Budapest. In a broader sense, his scholarly work revolves around the juncture of literature, visual culture, and cultural memory in American and Eastern European contexts. Currently, he is a junior core fellow at the Institute of Advanced Study, CEU.

All welcome!
